

Tai Chi and Qigong: Ancient Practices for Modern Times iMTQA Virtual Conference Oct 22, 2022 Call for Presenters

The International Medical Tai Chi Qigong Association (iMTQA) announces a call for presenters for its Annual 2022 Conference. The conference will be held as a virtual meeting using Zoom on October 22, 2022, 9am-4pm, Eastern Standard Time.

Virtual Host: D’Youville University, Buffalo NY.

Registration and Event Management services by Health, Prosperity & Leadership Institute.

Submission Deadline: August 5, 2022

Proposal Format

Demographic Info

- Presenter(s) name, phone, email, mailing address
. (Include multiple authors, if appropriate, indicating chief presenter.)
- Affiliation(s)
- Funding source, if any
- Category (Research, Special Interest/Community Practice, Case Study)
- Include the topics in your proposal based on the category you chose:

Research

Title
Purpose/hypothesis
Subjects
Materials/methods
Results & Conclusions
Clinical relevance
References

Special Interest/

Community Practice

Title
Purpose
Materials/methods
Outcomes
Clinical/Community relevance
References (if applicable)

Case Study

Title
Background and purpose
Case description
Outcomes
Discussion
References

Conditions

Proposals are intended to represent scientific research, special interest or community practices or case studies. All are expected to be non-commercial content related to clinical or community practice. Advertisements are not acceptable.

Submit in Word format to: Conference@imtqa.org

All submissions will undergo a blinded review process. Notifications will be sent to the presenting author via email around the beginning of September, 2022.

Presentations may be prerecorded, but presenters must log into the meeting at least 10 min prior to presentation and be present for presentation and active in real time for Q&A

General registration for attendees is a suggested donation fee is $75. Presenter/student registration suggested donation fee is $50 and is optional. Presentations will consist of live or pre-recorded audio/video presentations with optional Power Point augmentation following by live Q&A.

Presenter retains all copyright on presentation but provides iMTQA with a world-wide, non-exclusive license to distribute electronically or in print form the presentation, video, files, description, photo or likeness. Please let us know if you would prefer we did not make your presentation available to others.